

SKATE SHARPENING & SKATING APPAREL

SKATES: A pair of skates for a learn-to-skate level program should be between $50.00 to $75.00. Please be aware that plastic and/or adjustable skates are not recommended as they are often much harder to learn how to balance on.

RECOMMENDED SKATE BRANDS

HOCKEY SKATES: Bauer and CCM

FIGURE SKATES: Jackson, Soft-Tech, and Gam

SKATE SHOPS

Sport Check: Sells new skates (519) 886-6336
550 King St N, Waterloo

Sportco Source For Sports:
(519) 744-6831
880 King St E, Kitchener

Sportzone Canada: Sells new and used skates
1-888-785-9818
92 Lodge Street, Waterloo

McPhail's Cycle and Sports LTD:
Sells new and used skates (519) 886-4340
98 King St W, Waterloo

Play It Again Sports: Sells used skates
(519) 748-5809
509 Wilson Ave #12, Kitchener

HELMETS: A helmet should be no more than $40.00 - $50.00 brand new. If buying a helmet for the first time, new or used, the helmet has to be a Hockey Helmet with an unexpired and approved CSA sticker on the back. Face cage is optional, but recommended for beginner skaters.

SKATING EQUIPMENT SHOPS

1. Sport Check
2. Play It Again Sports
3. Sportco Source For Sports
4. Canadian Tire
5. Pro Hockey Life

All information provided on this page is subject to change without previous notification due to businesses being separate from the Kitchener Waterloo Skating Club. All suggestions are references for parents whose skaters are attending a Learn to Skate program.